EXCEPTIONAL COLOR/IMAGE CONSULTATIONS

Optimal Health

Healthy cells equal healthy bodies... it's that simple.

The modern American diet is grossly lacking in vine-ripened, freshly picked fruits and vegetables. Our foods are picked green sometimes continents away, shipped long distances and stored before sale. Our ancestors ate from hundreds of plant sources. We typically eat very few. The AMA recommends supplementing our diets with nutrients.

Mannatech's Optimal Health System was designed to serve as your nucleus for a better, healthier life. These products are formulated to work on the cellular level. When your cells are healthy, function properly and communicate with one another, so do your glands and organs. Each product has been designed to target specific areas of health. When taken together, they complement each other and support their individual positive wellness benefits.*

PhytoMatrix™ - Formulated to deliver many of the vitamins, minerals and phytochemicals you need – all in a convenient form. Natural vitamins, plant-sourced minerals and standardized phytochemicals offer greater health benefits than other types of nutrients.*

Ambrotose AO® - Combines MTech AO Blend®; with the cellular health support offered by Ambrotose® complex and dried fruits and vegetables. The result: An exceptional, power-packed supplement with antioxidant support designed to help you stay healthy and counter the effects of free radicals.*

PLUS - Support the body's immune and endocrine systems.*
